

De Roose rules the roost

SARAH de Roose scored 25 Stableford points to win the first Floodlit Challenge of November.

The evening's format was singles Stableford and De Roose's haul over the nine holes saw her take the title by three points from second placed Pierre Lefebvre with Victor Husband finishing third on 20.

In the on-course side prizes Fraser Moore won the Nearest the Pin in Three on the par-5 18th hole while Ami Watts struck the ladies Longest Drive down the first fairway.

De Roose continues fine form

THE annual Harradine Cup took centre stage at Al Hamra Golf Club in the finest golfing weather of the new season so far.

The tournament once again was sponsored and supported by Dubai based golf course architect Peter Harradine and his Harradine Golf and Orient Irrigation companies.

The last two Harradine Cup's have been won by one of Peter Harradine's own associate course architects but that all changed this year as Sarah de Roose continued her fine form over the Links.

De Roose, claimed the title in style as she beat the rest of the field by a clear seven points, reeling off nines of 20 points on the front and 25 on back for a 45 point total. Second, third and fourth places were decided on a countback over the last nine holes after Al Hamra member Cindy Rials, Yuki Matsuura and Sunny Ramadas all returned the excellent score of 38 points.

Despite a shaky front nine, where for a period of six holes he only scored four points, Ramadas had a superb back nine which amassed him 25 points as he finished with a glorious birdie at the final and signature par-5 18th hole to take second place outright.

Third place was awarded to Rials following a back nine points tally of 20 Stableford points, which left Matsuura in fourth place with 16 points on the inward back nine after a very impressive start to his round on the front nine.

