ANGELA SCURR HITS TOP FORM TO WIN THE 'HARRADINE OIS GOLF DAY'

FORMER multiple Amateur Ladies Championship winner Angela Scurr made a welcome return to form as she waltzed to victory in the Harradine Orient Irrigation Services Golf Day recently.

Having been involved in golf management in the UAE for many years, Scurr finds little time to play golf these days. However, after threatening to quit the game recently following a dismal spell of form she reminded herself – and everyone in the field – that talent is permanent as she cruised to victory with an impressive winning total of 36 Stableford points.

The Harradine Orient Irrigation Tournament, sponsored by the world-renowned course designer Peter Harradine, is held annually on the Resort Course at Jebel Ali and is just one of the many courses built and designed by the leading golf course architect in the Gulf region.

Comprising of a full field of players, the all-day tournament included Peter's golf industry partners,

Harradine Golf and Orient Irrigation employees and many of the friends he has accumulated after over 30 years of living and working in the UAE.

In the Divisional prizes Andrew Wick took the spoils in Division 'A' on 33 points, one clear of Andy Pilford while Worldwide Golf's David Burke romped to a two-point win over Frank Mason in Division 'B' after scoring 32 points.

The prize presentation and barbeque was highlighted by a typically energetic and straight from the shoulder speech from Harradine as he belatedly celebrated his 65th birthday which was just a few days prior to the tournament.

Harradine thanked his many business colleagues, partners and friends during his brief speech and then paid tribute to the invaluable support he receives each year from Swiss International Airlines who again provided two business class tickets as the main prizes in the after party draw.
