

Pravets Golf & SPA, Bulgaria, to host UniCredit PGA Professional Championship of Europe 2011

RIU Pravets Golf & SPA, Bulgaria is proud to host UniCredit PGA Professional Championship of Europe from 26th-29th September 2011 and is delighted with the outstanding quality of the tournament field.

PGA professionals who have qualified through their national events held by the PGAs of Europe member countries will be participating in what is a truly exceptional field including representatives from the Great Britain & Ireland team who will face USA in the PGA Cup, namely Craig Goodfellow, Christopher Gill and Simon Edwards.

Jonathan Pendry of Braemar Golf comments, RIU Pravets Golf and SPA has fast gained a national reputation for its quality. Braemar Golf are delighted with the number of competitors, their enthusiasm for the facility and we look forward to crowning the winner of this fabulous championship.

In an event that has attracted sponsorship from international companies such as UniCredit, Renault and Bulgaria Air and a host of other corporate partners, RIU Pravets Golf & SPA wishes the Great Britain & Ireland team well and looks forward to welcoming all the competitors to Bulgaria.
