

Pravets Golf Club Hosts Successful European International Mid Amateur Tournament

Pravets Golf Club has successfully hosted the 2014 European International Mid Amateur Championship. As it has come to be expected, Pravets was presented in magnificent condition for the 2014 edition of this important European Golf Association Event.

The testing layout drew respectful comments from the players who were impressed with the quality and condition of the course. Some found the fairways a little too narrow for their liking, but with excellent weather for the final two days, wonderful scores were returned including a course record 65 by Timo Tuunanen.

The event stalwart, Richard Heath, once again found himself in a playoff for the title with Banzhaf Felix and Alexander Koller, who had 3-putted on the final green for a bogey to open the door to his fellow competitors. All 3 returned a score of 6 under par for the Championship. The 3 went down the challenging 10th hole in sudden-death and Koller made no mistake this time closing out Heath and Banzhaf with a solid par 4 to win the title.

A marvelous week was capped by a prize-giving ceremony held on the terrace of the club-house with the setting sun in the background and followed by a sumptuous buffet. It was the first EGA golf event held at Pravets Golf Course but by all accounts this may become a favourite venue for the future.

One of the competitors response the his first visit to Pravets was “This was my first mid-am and hopefully not my last but my wife and I will definitely return to Pravets for a golf break & most likely I will bring the guys annual golf trip to Pravets too. The hotel, the location and scenery, friendly staff, the great golf course and facilities are all fantastic and are a credit to yourselves and to Bulgaria.”

Alan Rogut, Braemar’s Director of Golf at Pravets commented “We are delighted to receive such positive feedback from our guests as well as praise from the EGA. Year on year, as people discover Pravets, we are seeing more and more golf tourists, which is fantastic for Pravets and Bulgaria as a golf destination.”

The Pravets Golf & Spa Resort once again was a superb venue and host for a major event. The resort and golf course have gained a reputation for such tournaments and this year will see Pravets hosting its 4th PGA Professional
