

Uruguay lays down the law in Lugano

The winners of this month's Macau Business Charity Golf will, once again, be invited to play next year in the 10th edition of the Swiss International Tournament '3L', shorthand for Lugano, Lago Maggiore, Leventina.

In 2014, the '3L' circuit decided to switch sponsors after nine years: new sponsor SVA Swiss Valor Advisory SA Chiasso manages the circuit through SVA Marketing & Communication SAGL.

Paulo A. Azevedo and Bruno Ascensão represented Macau last month in Lugano, substituting for the 2013 Macau Business Charity Golf Tournament champions. The winning team on the 18-hole Golf Gerre championship course - designed by Peter Harradine, and one of the most attractive courses in Switzerland - was Uruguay, with Argentina topping the 'nearest to the pin' contest. Featuring fast greens and fairways carefully designed and masterly well-finished, Losone Golf Gerre is a sporting challenge for any golfer - and a joy to the eye. Other countries present at the 2014 final were Portugal, Spain, Switzerland and Italy. One of the guests of honour playing in this year's tournament was Carla Del Ponte, Chief Prosecutor for the UN's International Criminal Tribunal for the Former Yugoslavia. Ms. Del Ponte prosecuted Slobodan Milošević for his grave breaches of the Geneva Convention in Croatia and Bosnia and for his involvement in the Bosnia genocide. The Argentinian Ambassador to Berne, Antonio Gustavo Trombetta, also graced the dinner.

Lugano by air

Golf Gerre course

Are you calling me?

Uruguay team

Renato Pedrini, Carla Del Ponte and Ruggero Cantaluppi, Vice-President SVA

Marta Pedrazzini, Ambassador Antonio Trombetta, Carla Del Ponte and Marcelo D. Bottini

Paulo A. Azevedo, Bruno Ascenção, Luís Lopes dos Santos and Nicola Valerio

Marcelo D. Bottini, Kap Nyun Kim, Yong Kil Lee and Ambassador Antonio Trombetta

Prize dinner presentation at Salone Blu Hotel Splendide Royal Lugano

Embassador Antonio Gustavo Trombetta welcoming guests and delivering prize to Uruguay

Renato Pedrini, Ambassador Antonio Trombetta, Giuseppe Rossi (Director of Hotel Splendide Royal) and Kap Nyun Kim

Paulo A. Azevedo delivers the Macau prize to Ignacio Marina (Team Spain)